Gold, Silver, Platinum & Palladium Bullion

Why Precious Metals?

Studies have shown that owning precious metals may help protect investors from the ravages of inflation and safeguard long-term purchasing power. Bullion provides a safe haven in times of political, economic or international unrest. Precious metals provide a vital balance to other asset classes, such as stocks and bonds, by reducing overall portfolio volatility. Furthermore, under some market conditions, precious metals outperform stocks and bonds, and increase overall return. Due to their international nature, precious metals are recognized globally, offering investors alternative tangible assets with excellent liquidity. And while there can be no guarantee that precious metals prices will be higher tomorrow than they are today, they do represent an excellent investment choice for the long run.

FideliTrade Incorporated

FideliTrade Incorporated is a full-service precious metals service company located in Wilmington, Delaware. Known as America's Premier Precious Metals Investment Resource, FideliTrade is one of the few operations in the United States specializing in sales, trading, custody, and delivery of gold, silver, platinum and palladium bullion. Services are offered both directly to the investing public, and through a nationwide network of banks, brokers and dealers. FideliTrade's program comprises the former precious metals investment businesses of Bank of America, Bank of Delaware, Citibank, Chase Investment Services, JP Morgan Investment Services, Sunshine Mining Company and Wilmington Trust Company. FideliTrade's wholly-owned subsidiary, Delaware Depository Service Company, is an Exchange-licensed, CFTC-approved depository.

Why FideliTrade

- Highly experienced, responsive staff
- No high-pressure, commissioned salespersons
- Delaware location offers tax & security advantages
- Insured safekeeping and shipping
- State-of-the-art inventory control & reporting
- High security vaults with 24/7 monitoring
- Geographically separated from New York City & other major metropolitan areas
- Buy, Sell, Ship, Store — all at one location

Why Delaware?

The Delaware Advantage -- Further enhancing its service capabilities, FideliTrade is strategically located in Wilmington, Delaware. Delaware imposes no sales tax on the purchase, administration, or storage of precious metals. Furthermore, there are no corporate net worth, personal inventory or transfer taxes applied to physical bullion transactions. And unlike some other states, the sale of bullion does not create a nexus status for state income tax purposes. And Wilmington, Delaware is geographically separated from New York City & other major metropolitan areas; an attribute of growing interest since 9/11. As with any investment, investors should consult with their financial and tax advisors when considering a precious metals purchase.

Investors

FideliTrade makes investing in precious metals safe and easy. Open a FideliTrade account and all of your precious metals transactions become as simple as a toll-free telephone call. As a FideliTrade account holder, you will receive assistance with all of your precious metals transactions from an experienced service representative. And, since we do not use commissioned sales people, you can rest assured that you'll never be pressured. FideliTrade's services enable you to buy, sell, and arrange either custody or personal delivery of a large variety of gold, silver, platinum, and palladium bullion coins and bars. Services are offered both directly to the investing public, and through a nationwide network of banks, brokers and dealers.

Banks, Brokers & Dealers

FideliTrade offers a full range of specialized precious metals clearing and administrative services to an international network of commercial entities. The Company utilizes its unique blend of professional expertise, experienced staff, tested systems and state-of-the-art facilities to assist its corporate clientele with fulfilling their daily precious metals customer service requirements. FideliTrade provides a full range of precious metals sales, custody, operational and administrative support that enable banks, brokerage firms and other financial service organizations the ability to offer their customers, be they broker-dealers or individual retail and high net-worth investors, a complete array of precious metals investment services.
